

Raspberry, Apple & Mint Iced Tea

Makes 25 portions

15 or 20 teabags depending on strength

300g caster sugar

1 ltr apple juice

240ml raspberry syrup (available in the international aisle in Sainsburys)

A bunch of mint

3 – 4 punnets fresh raspberries

Ice

1. Bring 3 litres water to the boil and pour over the teabags in a large jug. Stir in the caster sugar to dissolve. Leave for at least 5 minutes to steep.
2. Take out the teabags, add two extra litres of water to the tea and leave the tea to cool down.
3. Add the apple juice and raspberry syrup.
4. To serve: Place one mint leaf at the bottom of the glass with ice cubes on top. Pour in the tea. Add a sprig of mint leaves and fresh raspberries to garnish.
